Harvest’s Guide to Great Coffee

Petit Trésor
306 - 308 Clarendon St // 9696 3540
Another new addition to the options available in 5th Melbourne, Petit Trésor specialise in cakes and sweets; although their food and coffee (roasted by Code Black) are also of a consistent high quality. They strive to serve their customers well and leave you feeling a little bit happier than when you came in.

South Melbourne Trader
111 Cecil St // 9696 3938
Quality ingredients are one of their highest values and it shows in both their specialty coffee (sourced from Rumble Coffee Roasters in Kensington) and in their food. Having been credited with creating one of Melbourne’s top three burgers by the Herald Sun, South Melbourne Trader is definitely a place to stop and grab a coffee and a bite to eat.
SPECIAL OFFER – Mention Harvest and receive 10% off

St. Ali
12 - 18 Yarra Place // 9686 2990
St. Ali is located down a colourful laneway and is regarded by many as one of the key instigators of the specialty coffee scene in Australia. With their dedication to breaking new ground in specialty coffee also transferring across to their production of food, St. Ali is one not to miss.
SPECIAL OFFER – Though they do not take reservations, if Harvest is mentioned, they will reserve a table and with every meal you will receive a free bag of freshly roasted beans.
1. Chez Dré
Rear of 285-287 Coventry St // 9690 2688
Around a corner and down an alley, Chez Dré has extensive seating and a great outside courtyard. They specialise in artisan breads and pastries, but their food is great and the coffee is locally roasted by Malting Room in Canterbury. It will take great discipline to walk past their sweet cabinet without succumbing to the delicious treats on offer.

2. Ciel
400 City Rd
Newly opened on the Planetshakers premises, Ciel is a great addition to the quality cafes in 5th Melbourne. Serving high quality coffee from 5 Senses and very tasty food!

3. Clement
89/116 Cecil St
This little hole in the wall on the outskirts of 5th Melbourne Market is a great draw for passionate coffee lovers. Named after Pope Clement VIII who is believed to have put a stop to an effort of some clergy who tried to ban coffee from the Catholic church, legend says that after his first sip he declared that something this delicious must have come from the hand of God. Clement seems to agree because it takes its coffee very seriously, using a selection of beans from St. Ali and other specialty roasters.

4. Cottle
300 Coventry St // 9699 4121
Cottle Coffee has been roasting their own coffee since 1972. This 5th Melbourne staple has an even richer history, taking over a roastery that had been around since 1912. Having had such a rich tradition, you can be assured that their coffee and their food can be trusted.

SPECIAL OFFER - Mention Harvest for discounted coffee (regular $3 or large $3.50), or 10% off their extensive store.

5. Dead Man Espresso
35 Market St // 9696 3912
Dead Man has been a leader in the Melbourne cafe scene for many years – and with good reason. Outstanding food, exceptional coffee and a wonderful wood infused fit-out makes it a brilliant place to enjoy your break.

SPECIAL OFFER – They do not take reservations, but if Harvest is mentioned, they will reserve a table and with every meal you will receive a free bag of freshly roasted beans.

6. Dimattina
173 Clarendon St // 9929 7444
In 1998 Dimattina opened in a 100 year old heritage-listed building with ample seating and a European flavour to their food fare. Dimattina has been roasting since the 1950’s and has remained at the forefront of the coffee industry. Definitely one to check out.

7. Freestyle
6 Union St // 9999 4396
Down a small one way street, Freestyle is a charming little cafe with both an outdoor eating area as well as a very cozy interior. The food is exceptional and the coffee is freshly roasted by Allpress. When you need a hideaway space – this should be your go-to.

8. Giddiup
269 Coventry St // 9682 8620
This 35 seater cafe located on the corner of Coventry and Francis streets, is always abuzz and for good reason – high quality coffee roasted by Single Origin Roasters and great food are a winning combination.

9. Meeting Hub
316 Clarendon St // 8528 5440
New to the 5th Melbourne cafe scene, Meeting Hub is a welcome addition, with attractive food options and high quality coffee roasted by All in Hawthorn.

SPECIAL OFFER – Mention Harvest and receive 10% off

10. Padre
Stall 33 South Melbourne Market // 9699 8348
(Open only on Market days.) Though only open on the Wednesday of conference, this is a destination must for those who are coffee snobs. Padre has been roasting in Brunswick East since 2007 and have a definite focus on producing the best coffee they can. Their Daddy’s Girl and Seasonal blends are some of the best Melbourne has to offer.
